Hanul Family Alliance cordially invites you to join us for a spectacular evening at Hanul Family Alliance's 31st Benefit Dinner on April 6th, 2024 (Saturday), at the exquisite Chevy Chase Country Club.

This year's theme is 'Bridging Generations,' symbolizing our commitment to fostering connections across all age groups. From the vibrant energy of youth to the wisdom of our older adults, let's unite in celebration!

This is more than just a dinner—it's a celebration of community, love, and support. Let's come together, share stories, and create memories that span generations.

SEOLLAL EVENT & OPEN HOUSE (02/03)

The poster features a top section with two people practicing calligraphy. Below this, the title 'SEOLLAL AND OPEN HOUSE' is written in large, stylized letters, with 'February 3, 2024 10:00AM - 1:00PM' underneath. Three circular icons illustrate the event's offerings: 'Delicious Korean Food' (showing a plate of food), 'Enjoy Performances by Korean Performing Arts Institute of Chicago (KPAC)' (showing a person playing a guqin), and 'Activities and Games: Boekjumoni & Jegichagi' (showing people playing a game). A QR code is provided for registration, with the link 'bit.ly/HanulSOH'. The bottom of the poster includes the Hanul Family Alliance logo, the text 'Limited Spots Are Available Register NOW!', and the address '1166 S. Elmhurst Rd Mt. Prospect, IL 60056'.

STAFFING UPDATES

Hanul Family Alliance

New Staff

JEONGMIN SHIN, MPP

SU JIN SONG

DYLAN ROBINSON

Jeongmin Shin, MPP, joins Hanul Family Alliance as an Executive Manager.

“With a background in public policy, focusing on finance and environmental policies from the Harris School of Public Policy at the University of Chicago, I'm enthusiastic to bring my passion for social change to Hanul.”

Su Jin Song joins Hanul Family Alliance as a Community Health Program Coordinator.

“Su Jin brings a wealth of experience as a social worker in Korea and her commitment to community work in Chicagoland will be invaluable assets to Hanul. Su Jin will be working with Anna Kim to coordinate and develop our Community Health programs and services.”

Dylan Robinson joins Hanul Family Alliance as an Intern in Hanul's Internship Program.

“My name is Dylan Robinson and I will be Hanul's intern from now until mid-August!”

I have a background in Psychology, Social Services, and DEI-A. I'm also a huge soccer fan and will be watching Korea during the Asian Cup!”

We are very excited and happy to share that three very talented staff members have joined our Hanul Family Alliance team to start 2024!

Jeongmin Shin - Executive Manager

Su Jin Song - Community Health Program Coordinator

Dylan Robinson - Hanul Intern

We are so grateful to have Jeongmin, Su Jin, and Dylan on board, and we are so excited for all of their positive impacts to come for our organization and clients!
